INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Trustees of
New Community Health Care, Inc.:

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of New Community Health Care, Inc. (the "Organization") (a Nonprofit Organization), which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the related statements of activities and changes in net deficit, cash flows, and functional expenses for the years then ended, and the related notes to financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Organization as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the changes in its net deficit and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAS"). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Organization and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Emphasis of Matter

As described in Note 6, the Organization is dependent upon the continued financial support of New Community Corporation through its debt financing, favorable credit terms and willingness to provide working capital. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

1. NATURE OF THE ORGANIZATION

New Community Health Care, Inc. (the "Organization") was incorporated in the State of New Jersey in 1983 to oversee the operations of a 180-bed extended health care facility located in Newark, New Jersey, and began operations in January 1986. The Organization's medical professionals are committed to delivering the highest quality of care with compassion. In addition to operating the 180-bed facility, the Organization provides additional services which include customized care by a multidisciplinary team, specialized care and structured activities for Alzheimer's/Dementia residents, an Alzheimer's/Dementia support group, psychological and psychiatric services, wound care, nephrology, access to primary care physicians including geriatricians, administration and management of medications, specialized dietary plans directed by physicians and registered dietitians, rehabilitation services, physical, occupational, speech and audiology therapies, dentistry, podiatry, ophthalmology and audiology.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis and in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Financial reporting by not-for-profit organizations requires that resources be classified for accounting and reporting purposes into net asset categories (for the years ending December 31, 2024 and 2023, the Organization had net deficit according to externally (donor) imposed restrictions as follows:

Net assets (deficit) without donor restrictions: Net assets (deficit) that are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions and may be expended for any purpose in performing the primary objectives of the Organization. These net assets (deficit) may be used at the discretion of the Organization's management and the board of directors.

Net assets (deficit) with donor restrictions: Net assets (deficit) subject to stipulations imposed by donors and grantors. Some donor restrictions are temporary in nature; those restrictions will be met by actions of the Organization or by the passage of time. Other donor restrictions are perpetual in nature, whereby the donor has stipulated the funds be maintained in perpetuity.

Donor restricted contributions are reported as increases in net assets with donor restrictions. When a restriction expires, net assets are reclassified from net assets with donor restrictions to net assets without donor restrictions in the statements of activities and changes in net deficit.

There are no net assets (deficit) with donor restrictions as of December 31, 2024 and 2023.

Functional Expenses

The costs of providing the Organization's program and supporting services have been summarized on a functional basis and detailed by natural classification in the accompanying statements of functional expenses. Costs that are directly related to a specific program or general and administrative are directly charged to their functional category. Certain costs have been allocated among the program and supporting services based on a percentage of use determined by management to reflect the benefit received. The percentage of use is primarily determined by cost allocation techniques such as time and effort and square footage.

Patient Services Receivable

The collection of receivables from third-party payors and patients is the Organization's primary source of cash for operations and is critical to its operating performance. The primary collection risks relate to uninsured patient accounts and patient accounts for which the primary insurance payor has paid, but patient responsibility amounts (deductibles and copayments) remain outstanding. Patient receivables from third-party payors are carried at a net amount determined by the original charge for the service provided, less an estimate made for explicit price concessions provided to third-party payors. Receivables due directly from patients are carried at the original charge for the service provided less discounts provided under the Organization's charity care policy; less amounts covered by third-party payors taking into consideration the patient's ability to pay based on historical experience.

Management regularly reviews data about these major payor sources of revenue in evaluating the sufficiency of the allowance of credit losses and subsequently each patient's ability to pay. For patient services receivable associated with services provided to patients who have third-party coverage, the Organization analyzes contractually due amounts and provides an allowance for credit losses. For receivables associated with self-pay patients, including patients without insurance and patients with deductible and copayment balances due for which third-party coverage exists for part of the bill, the Organization adjusts for implicit price concessions in the period of service on the basis of its past experience, which indicates that many patients are unable or unwilling to pay the portion of their bill for which they are financially responsible. The difference between the standard rates or the discounted rates, if negotiated, and the amounts actually collected after all reasonable collection efforts have been exhausted is charged off against patient service revenue. The opening balance as of January 1, 2023, for accounts receivable was $1,059,426.

Net Patient Service Revenue

The Organization receives reimbursements for services rendered to qualified patients from the Division of Medical Assistance and Health Services of the Department of Human Services of the State of New Jersey (Medicaid and Medicare). The Organization received on average approximately 81% and 84% of its gross revenues for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively, from the aforementioned federal and state agencies. The Organization has agreements with third-party payors that provide for payments to the Organization at amounts different from its established rates. Payment arrangements include predetermined fee schedules and discounted charges. Service fees are reported at the estimated net realizable amounts from patients, third-party payors and others for services rendered, including retroactive adjustments under reimbursement agreements with third-party payors, which are subject to audit by administering agencies. These adjustments are accrued on an estimated basis and are adjusted in future periods as final settlements are determined.

The Organization recognizes patient service revenue associated with services provided to patients who have third-party coverage on the basis of contractual rates for the services rendered. For uninsured patients who do not qualify for charity care, the Organization recognizes revenue on the basis of its standard rates for services provided or on the basis of discounted rates if negotiated or provided by policy. On the basis of historical experience, a significant portion of the Organization's uninsured patients will be unable to pay for the services provided. Thus, the Organization records a significant adjustment to revenue for implicit price concessions related to uninsured patients in the period the services are provided.

New Community Health Care, Inc.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2024 and 2023

---

Generally, patients who are covered by third-party payors are responsible for related deductibles and coinsurance, which vary in amount. The Organization also provides services to uninsured patients, and offers those uninsured or underinsured patients financial assistance, by either policy or law, from standard charges. The Organization estimates the transaction price for patients with deductibles and coinsurance and from those who are uninsured based on historical experience and current market conditions. The initial estimate of the transaction price is determined by reducing the standard charges by any explicit price concession, financial assistance and implicit price concessions. Subsequent changes to the estimate of the transaction price are generally recorded as adjustment to net patient service revenue in the period of the change. Subsequent changes that are determined to be the result of an adverse change in the patient's ability to pay are recorded as bad debt expense.

The Organization provides care to certain patients under Medicaid and Medicare payment arrangements. Laws and regulations governing the Medicaid and Medicare programs are complex and subject to interpretation. Compliance with such laws and regulations can be subject to future government review and interpretation as well as significant regulatory action.

Due to funding sources

The Organization periodically receives overpayments from third-party payors on patient accounts, resulting in amounts owed back to third-party payors. These amounts are excluded from revenues and are recorded as liabilities until they are refunded. As of December 31, 2024 and 2023, the amounts due to funding sources were to $674,668 and $653,797, respectively.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost less accumulated depreciation. The Organization provides depreciation and amortization on leasehold improvements and furniture, fixtures and equipment and vehicles using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives of the assets as follows:

Description	Estimated Life (Years)
Leasehold improvements	*
Furniture, fixtures and equipment	5 - 10
Vehicles	3 - 10

* Estimated useful life of the assets or life of lease, whichever is shorter.

When assets are retired or otherwise disposed of, their costs and related accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts, and any gain or loss is included in earnings. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to income as incurred; replacements and betterments that extend the useful lives are capitalized.

Valuation of Long-Lived Assets

In accordance with the accounting standards related to impairment or disposal of long-lived assets, the Organization reviews long-lived assets, including property and equipment, for impairment whenever events or changes in business circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of assets may not be fully recoverable. Management has determined that no impairment was necessary for the periods presented in these financial statements.

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2024 and 2023

Income Taxes

The Organization is exempt from federal income taxes as an organization described under Section 501(c)(3) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code. The Organization is also exempt from state income taxes. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been recorded in these financial statements. The Organization had no unrecognized tax benefits at December 31, 2024 and 2023 and has incurred no interest or penalties related to income taxes for the periods presented in the financial statements.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Significant estimates included in these financial statements include management's best estimate of the valuation allowance which offsets patient services receivable.

Advertising

Advertising is expensed as incurred and approximated $11,600 and $14,200 for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Organization has significant cash balances at financial institutions which throughout the year may exceed the federally insured limit of $250,000. Any loss incurred or a lack of access to such funds could have a significant adverse impact on the Organization's financial condition, changes in net deficit, and cash flows.

Concentration of Labor

The Organization has certain employees (service and maintenance employees, patient activities assistants, certified nursing assistants and licensed practical nurses) that are covered by a collective bargaining agreement with a union covering the period March 26, 2017 through March 25, 2020. On May 27, 2022, a memorandum of understanding was executed, where both parties operate under the new terms covering the period May 29, 2022 through May 28, 2025. As of the report date, the Organization is under negotiation for the renewal of the agreement.

As of December 31, 2024, approximately 64% of the employees are covered under the collective bargaining agreement.
